Primus Partners with E/M Wave, Inc. as their National Distributor of Mobile Antennas

January, 2012
Primus

Primus is excited to announce its partnership with E/M Wave, Inc. and now has a full inventory of their quality antennas for customers with mobile antenna needs. For more than 30 years, Primus has serviced the wireless communications industry with an array of mobile, portable and base station antenna solutions and accessories. Primus knows antennas, and we are truly ecstatic to now offer “Added Antenna Value” across E/M Wave’s entire product line!

From the company’s innovative dual-sealed, insert molded weatherproof base coils, to economical high performing “X”-Nut™ quarter waves, to Superior e/m-Flex™ Polymer Springs and high-impact Xenoy™ housings; E/M Wave antennas are application-driven designs engineered to meet or exceed specifications and built to surpass customer expectations. It all adds up to “More Antenna Value” at very competitive price points! For pricing and availability, contact Pat Morgan with Primus at (800) 435-1636 or pmorgan@primuselectronics.com.
